THE BIG ISSUE IS AUSTRALIA'S LEADING SOCIAL ENTERPRISE, OFFERING PEOPLE A HAND UP, NOT A HAND OUT.

The Big Issue is a fortnightly, independent magazine sold on the streets by people experiencing homelessness, marginalisation and disadvantage.

Vendors buy copies of the magazine for $4.50 and sell them for $9, keeping the difference. More than 7,500 vendors have sold the magazine since 1996.

Collectively they have sold more than 14 million magazines across Australia, directly earning over $38 million.

The Big Issue magazine is estimated to save the community $25,000 per vendor per year through a reduction in their demand for social services including hospitals, welfare support and correctional facilities.

Where our vendors sell

Over the past 28 years, The Big Issue has grown from a small number of vendors working in Melbourne's CBD to a group of more than 600 vendors working across the country per year.

Whilst the majority of our vendors work in the CBD areas of Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Adelaide, Canberra, and Perth, we also have a number of vendors regularly selling in regional centres including:

VIC – Geelong, Ballarat, Wangaratta

NSW – Katoomba, Leura, Newcastle

QLD – Gold Coast

SA – Whyalla

WA – Bunbury, Busselton

Also available by subscription

The Big Issue magazine is also available to purchase via subscription.

The Women's Workforce employs women experiencing homelessness and disadvantage (who find it difficult selling the magazine on the streets) in a safe and supportive environment to hand pack copies of the magazine for subscribers each fortnight.

More than 200 women have been employed in the enterprise which operates in Melbourne, Sydney, Adelaide and Perth.
